

Core Criterion and Core Evidence Vocabulary

An explanatory example

Introduction

This slidedeck aims to give the reader an idea of how the Core Criterion and Core Evidence Vocabulary is to be used. It describes a brief and simple example, that should help to better understand the specification.

Storyline: part 1 (evidence requester)

- In order to marry, a Belgian citizen has to fulfill the requirements written down in the Belgian Civil Code and issued by the Federal Public Service Justice.
- As the applicant has to be of legal age to marry, the Belgian government requests this information from him/her.
- More specifically, the applicant's age has to be equal or higher than 18 years.
- These requirements both relate to the concept of age.
- In order to prove this, the citizen can either provide his/her birth certificate or his/her ID card.

Storyline: part 2 (evidence provider)

- John Doe, a Belgian citizen, wishes to marry and provides his ID card.
- His ID card is conformant to the evidence type as specified by the Belgian government.
- John's ID card supports his claim that he is 25 years of age.
- He thereby fulfills the requested information and constraint requirements.

In order to marry, a Belgian citizen has to fulfill the requirements written down in the Belgian Civil Code

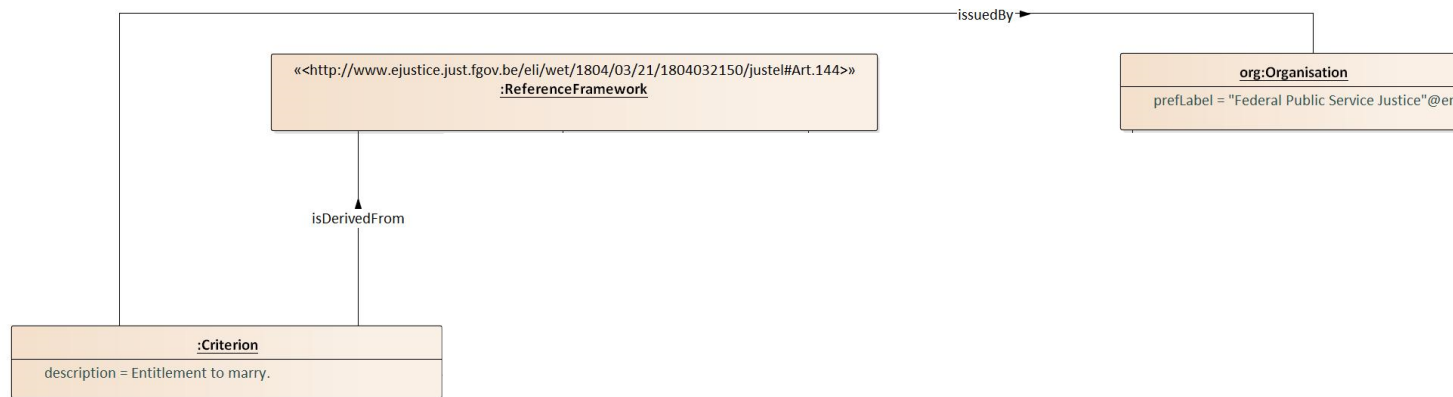

isDerivedFrom

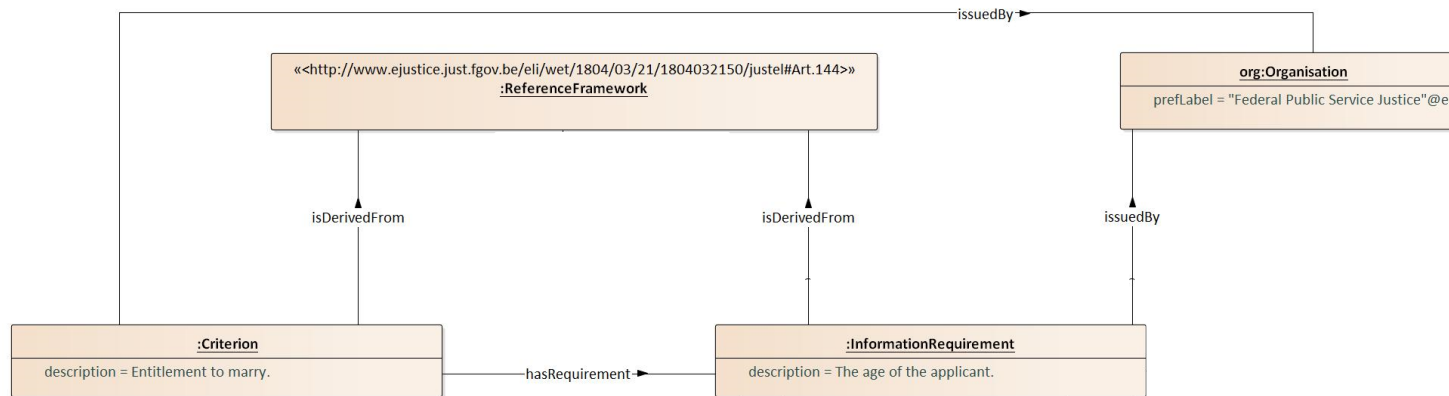

:Criterion

description = Entitlement to marry.

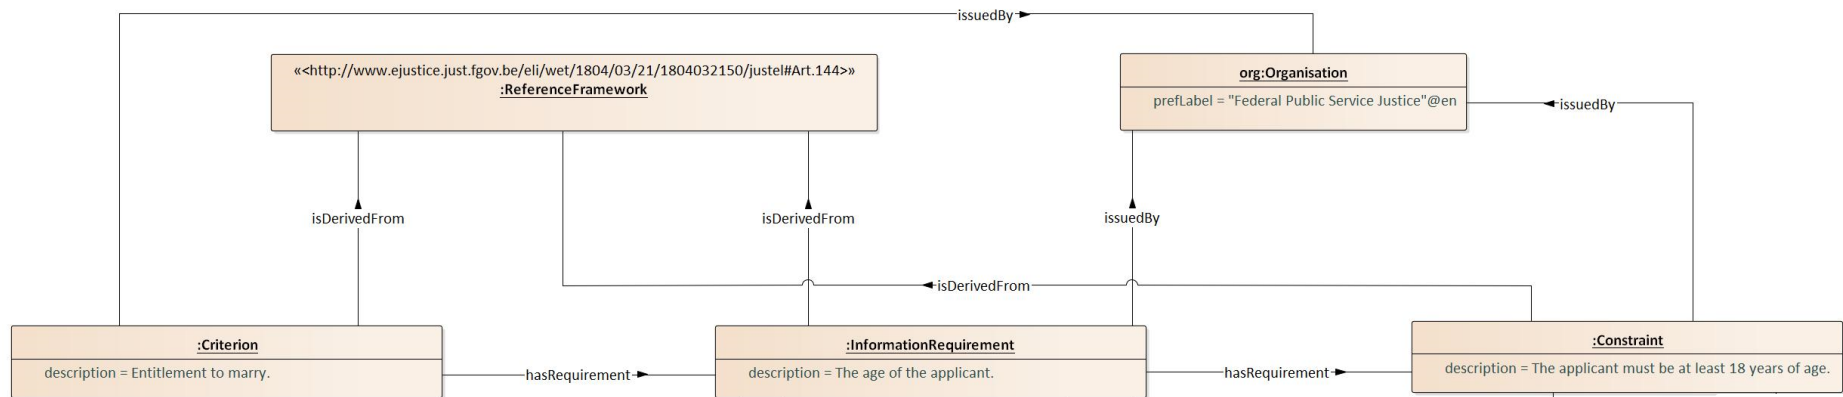

In order to marry, a Belgian citizen has to fulfill the requirements written down in the Belgian Civil Code and issued by the Federal Public Service Justice.

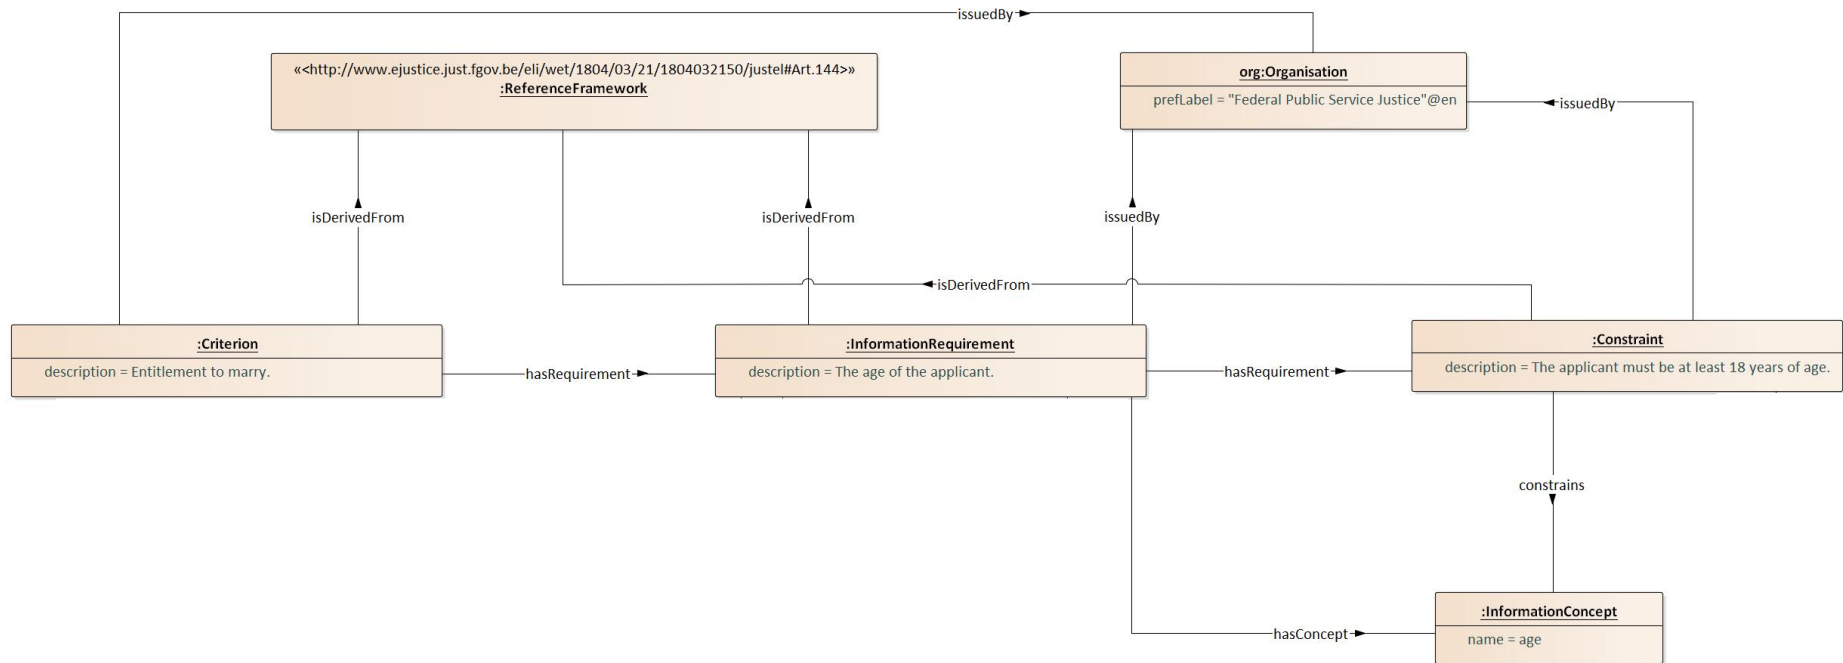

As the applicant has to be of legal age to marry, the Belgian government requests this information from him/her.

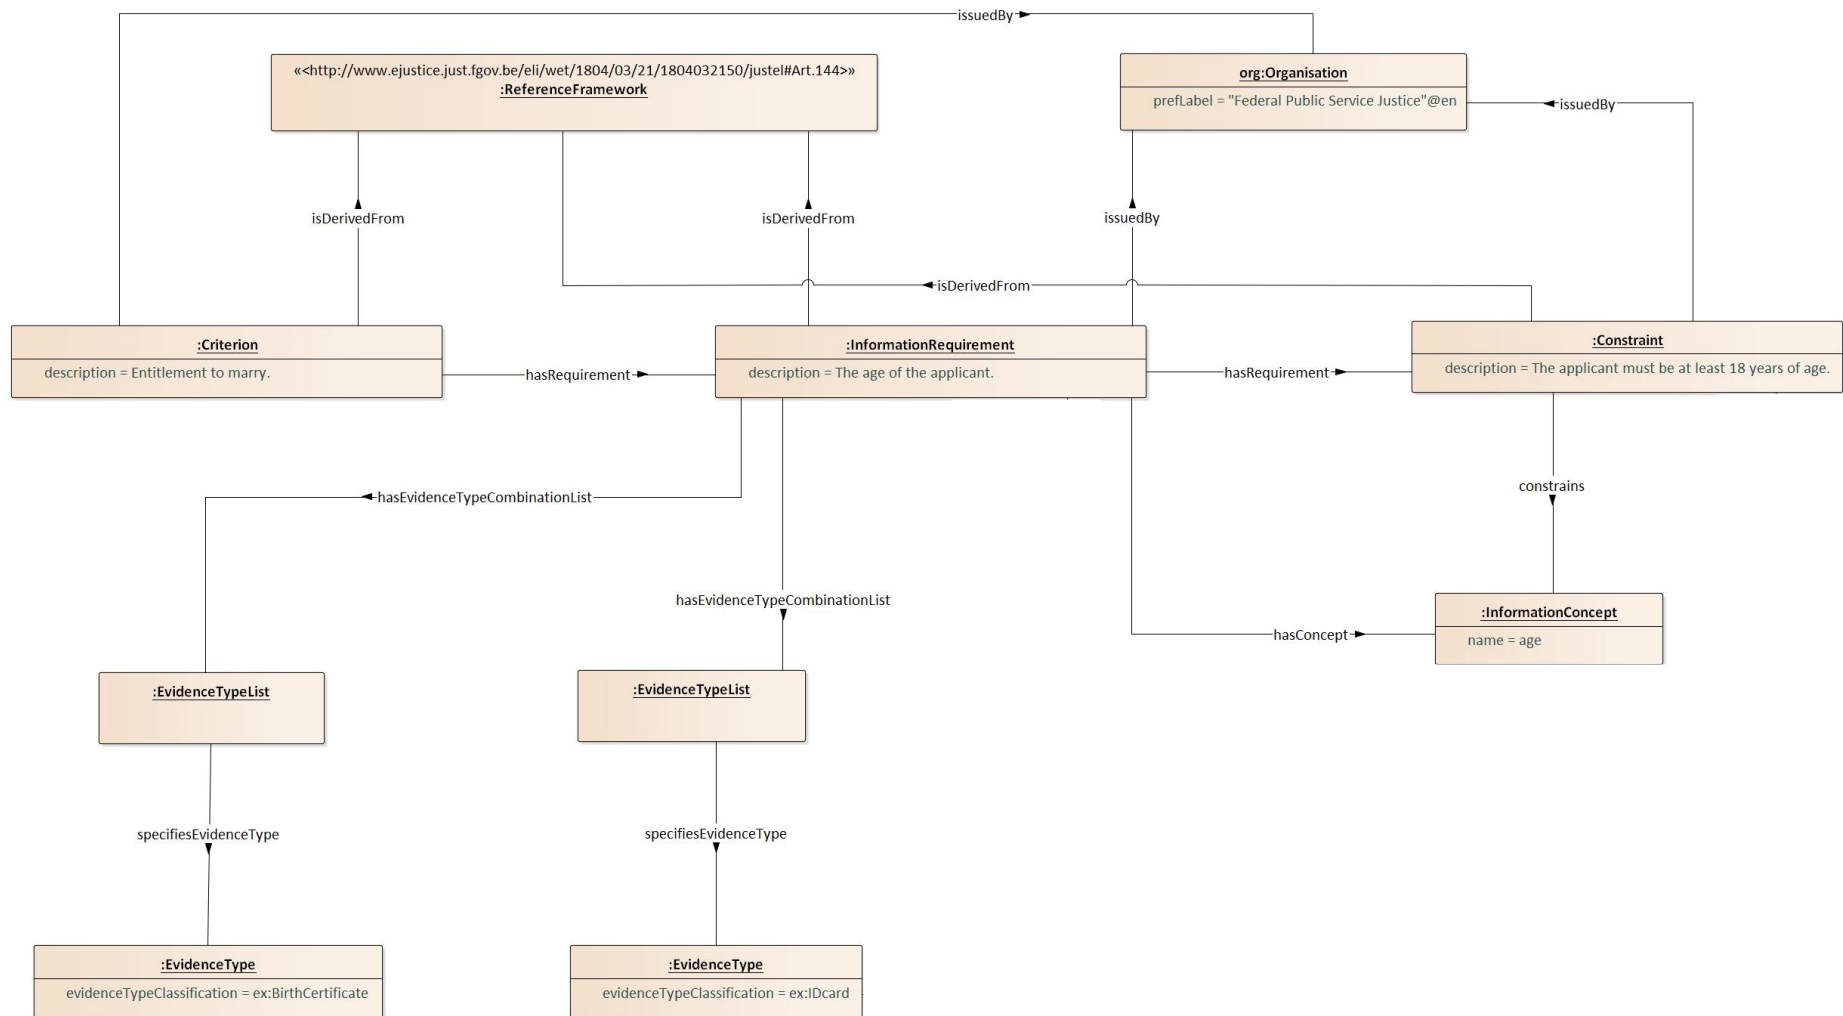

More specifically, the applicant's age has to be equal or higher than 18 years.

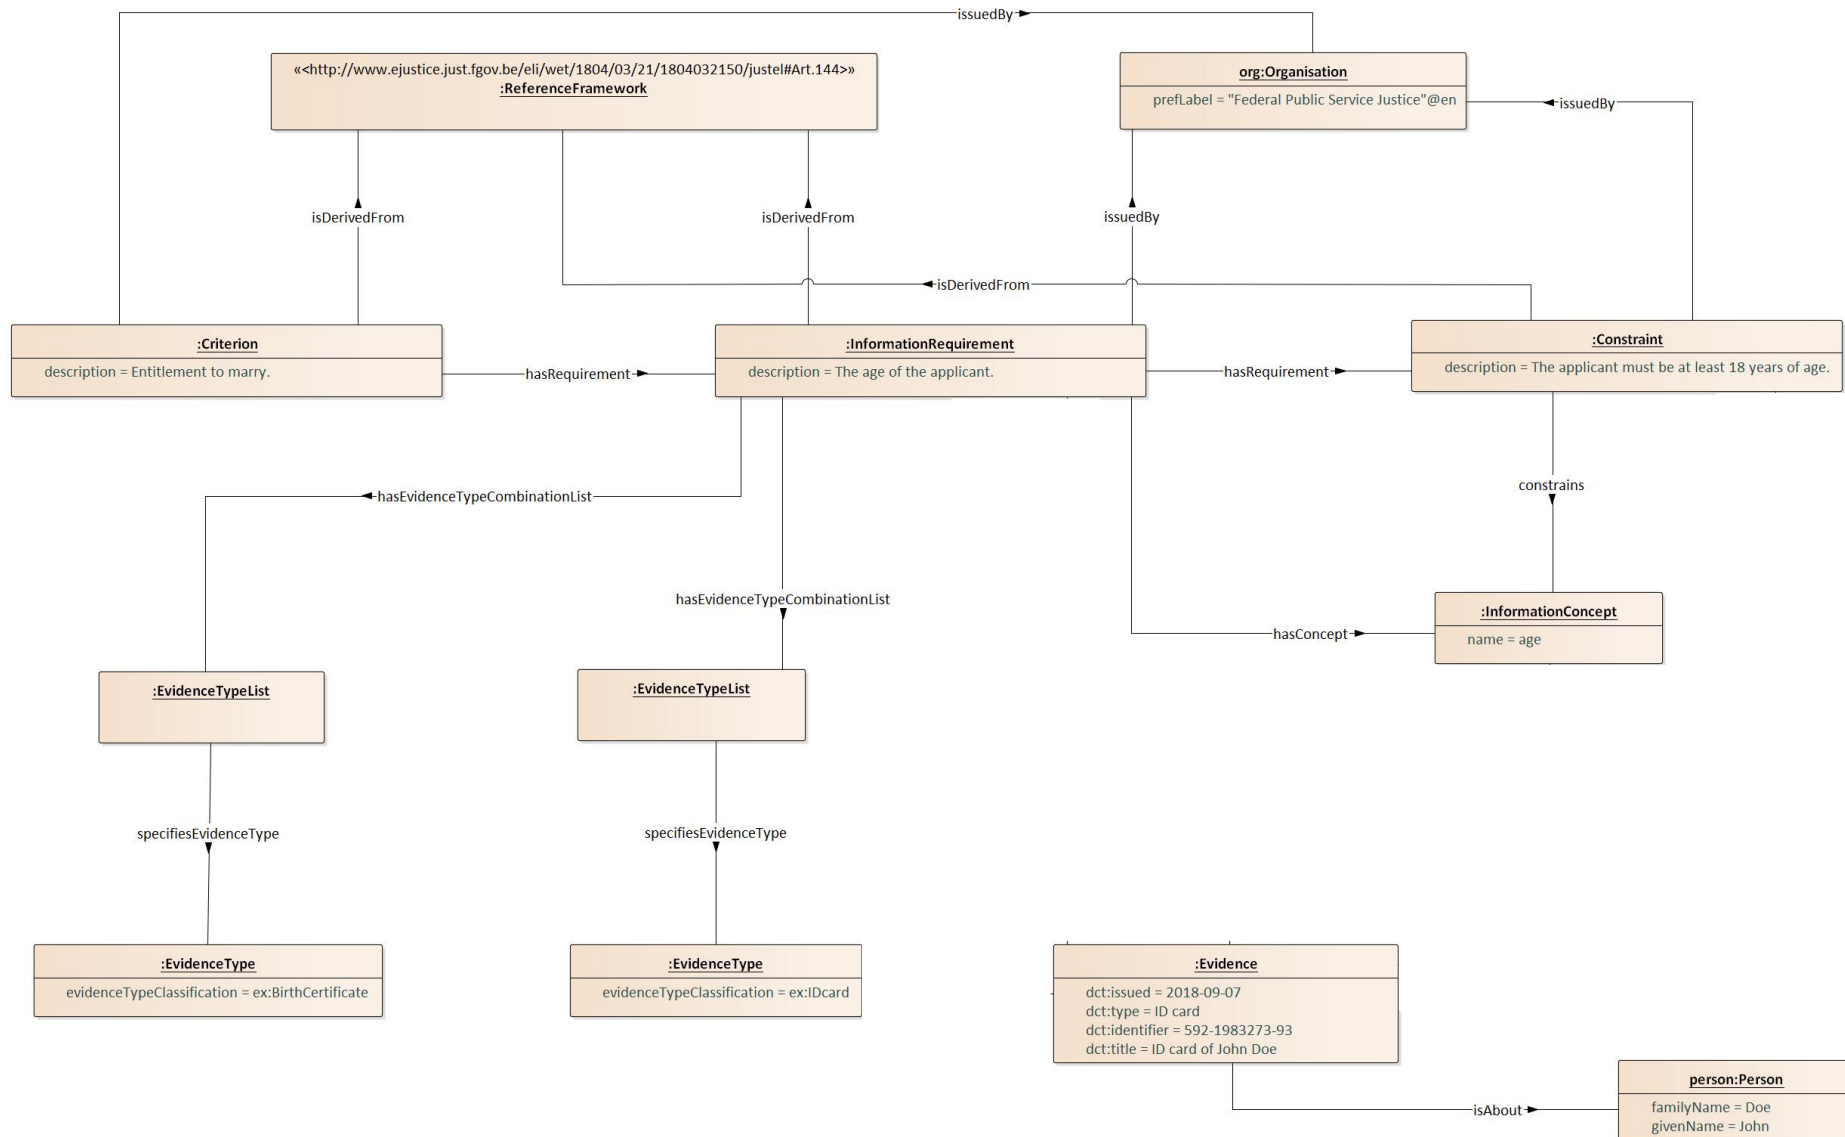

These requirements (Information Requirement and Constraint) both relate to the concept of age.

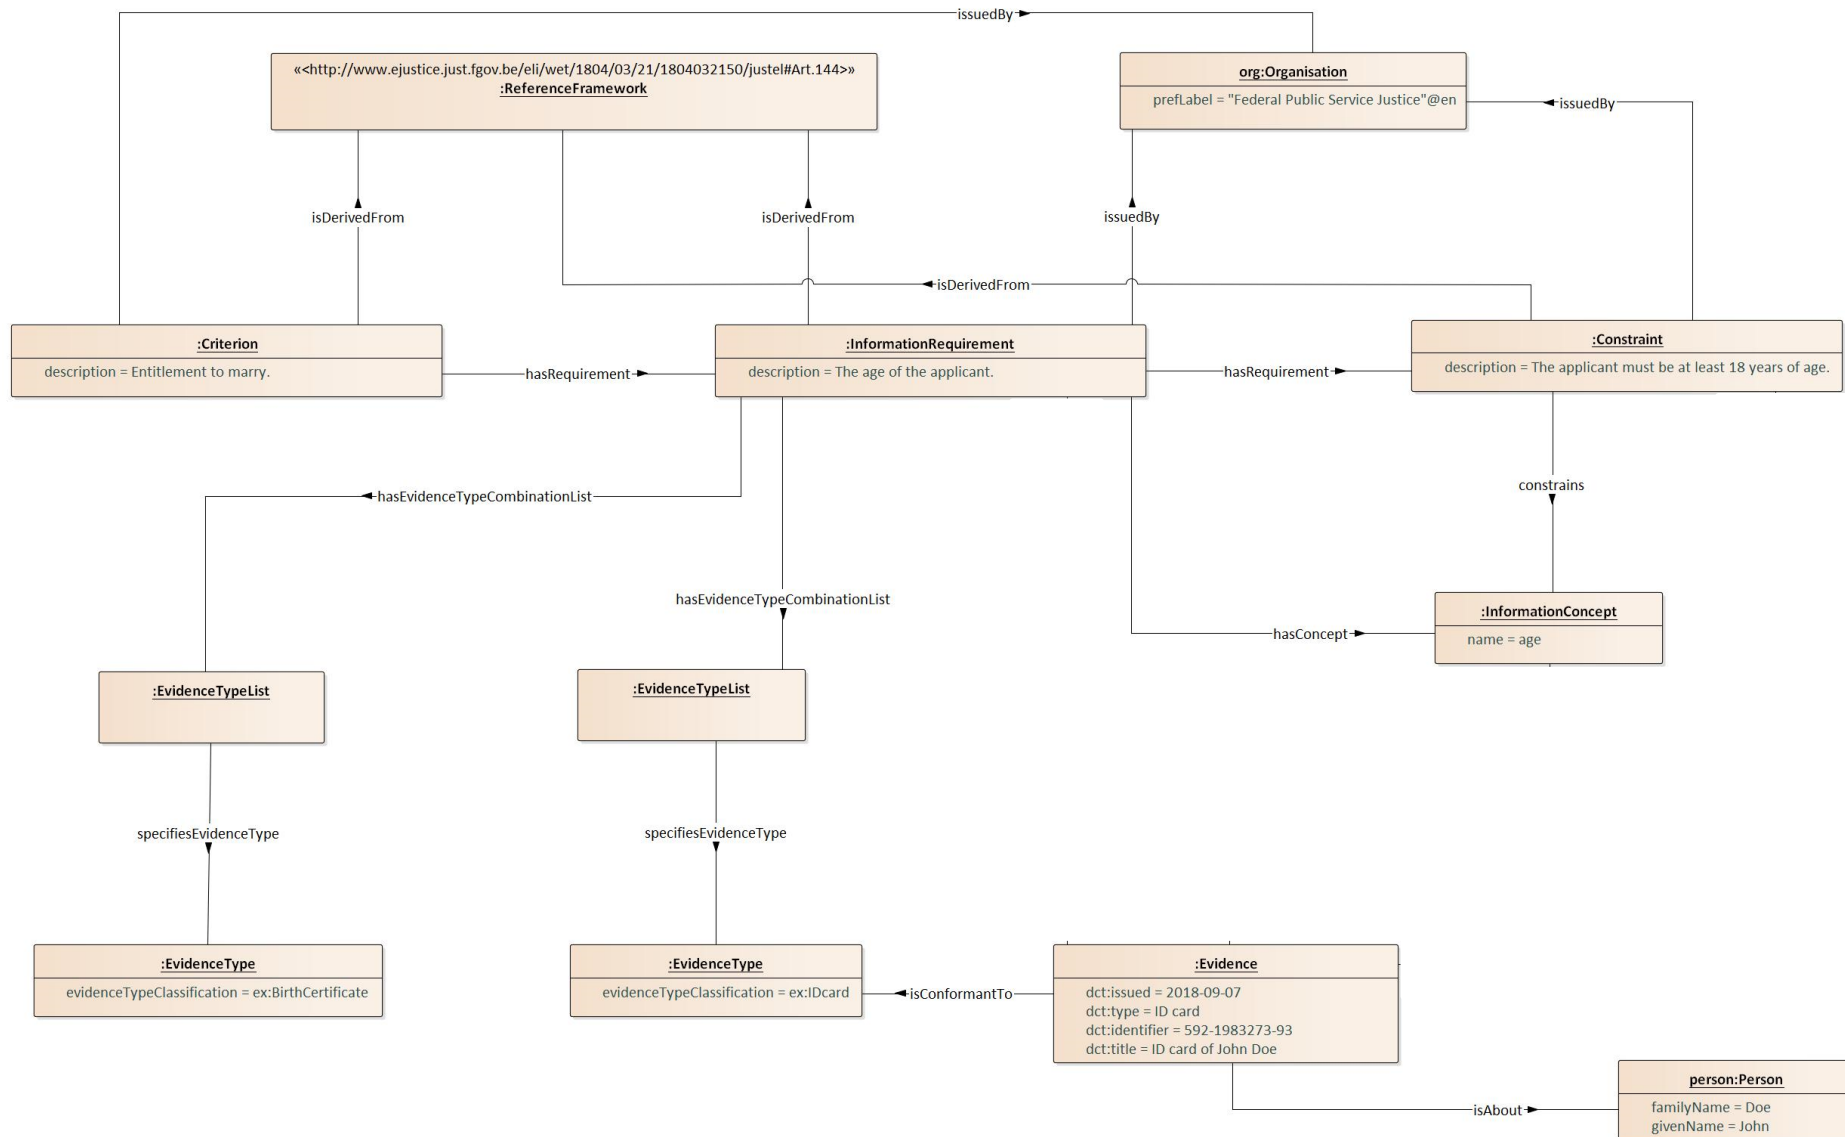

In order to prove this, the citizen can either provide his/her birth certificate or his/her ID card.

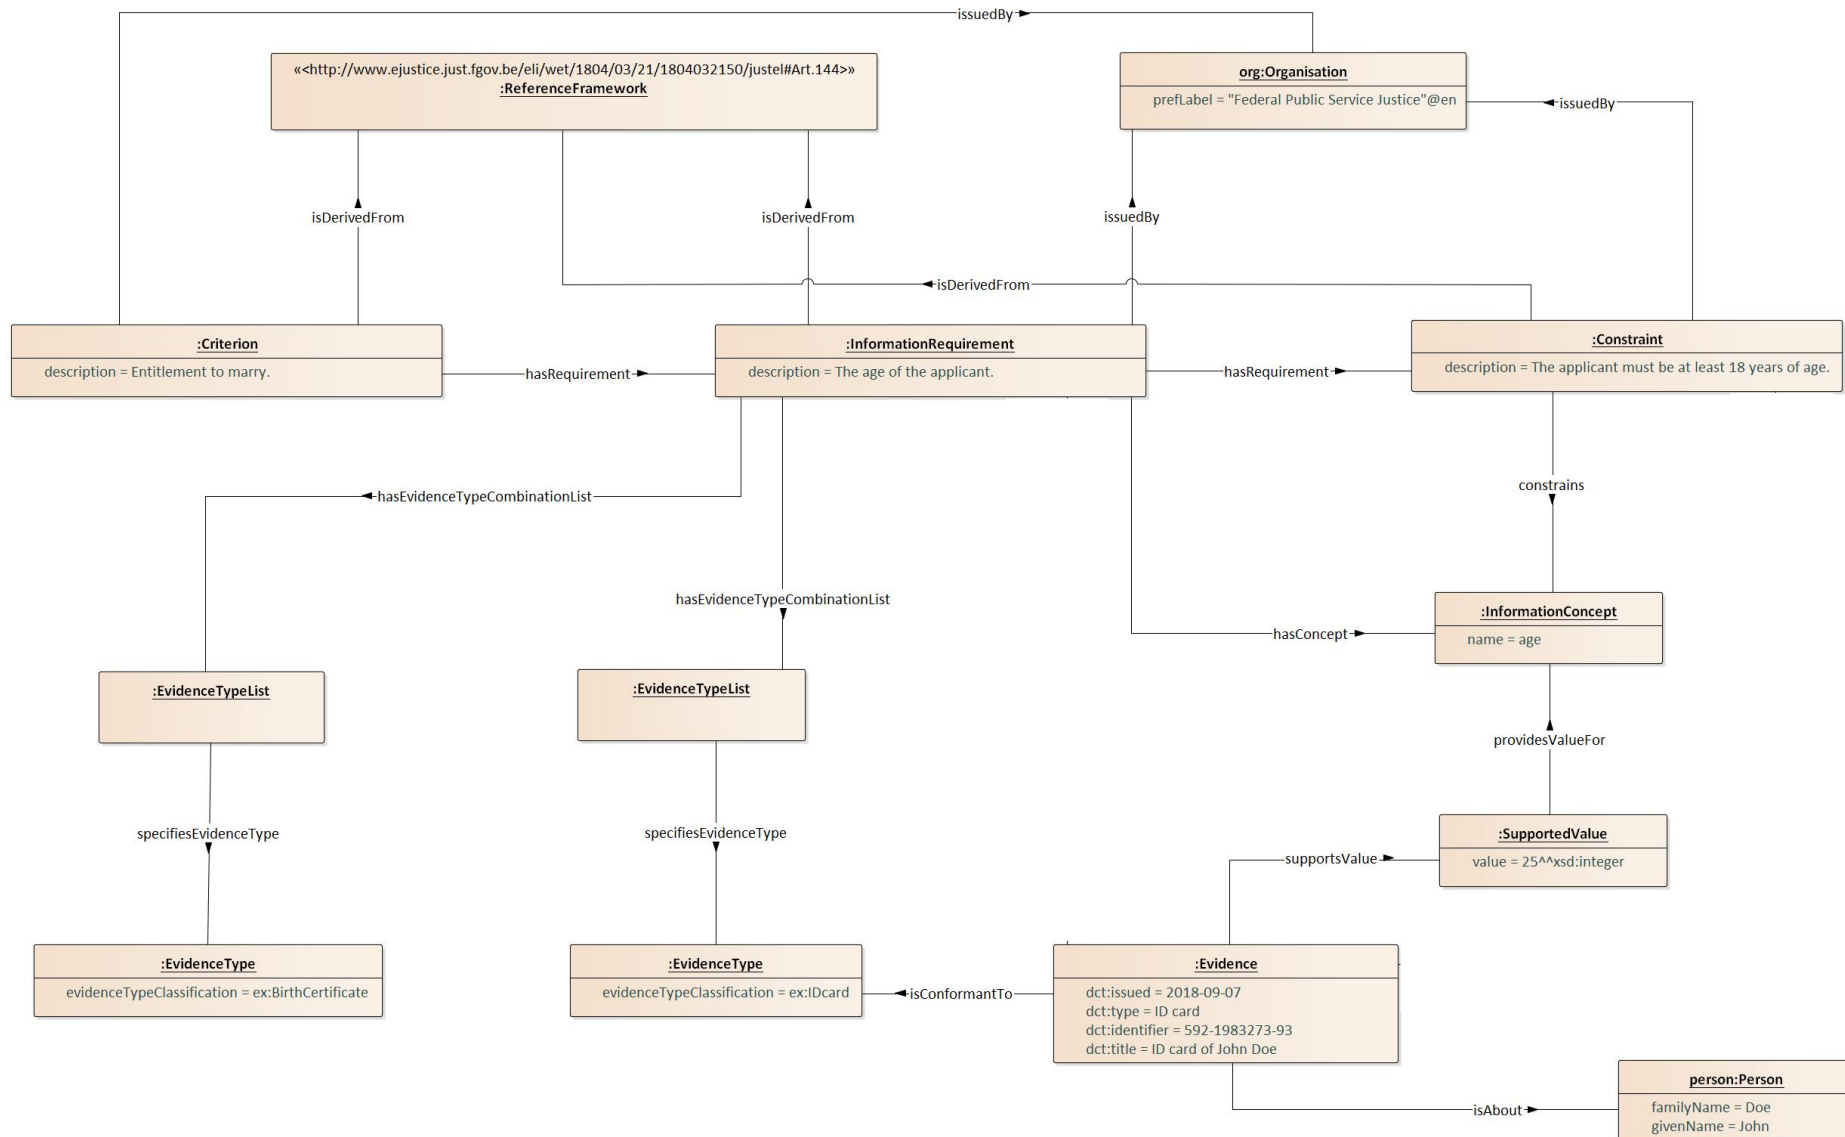

John Doe, a Belgian citizen, wishes to marry and provides his ID card.

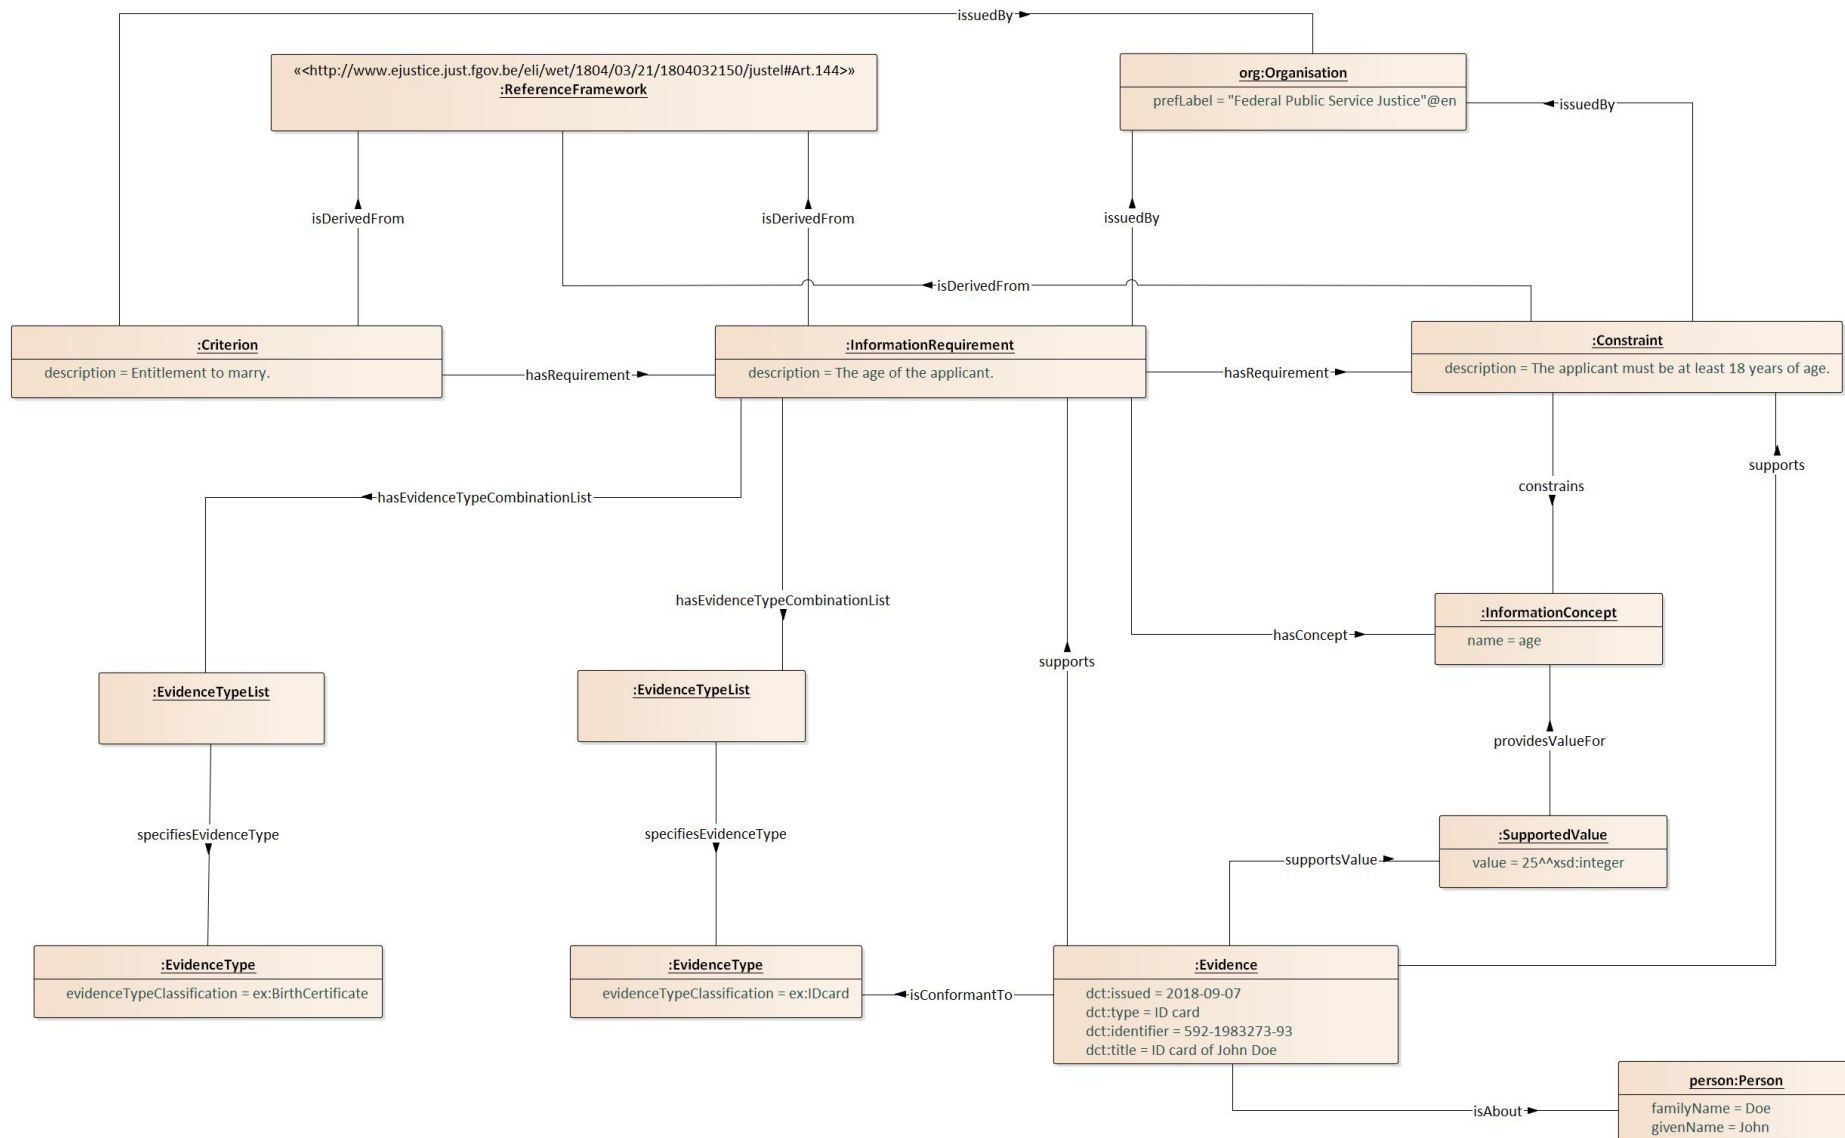

His ID card is conformant to the evidence type as specified by the Belgian government.

John's ID card supports his claim that he is 25 years of age.

He thereby fulfills the requested information and constraint requirements.

ISA² programme

You click, we link!

Stay in touch
ec.europa.eu/isa2

@
EU_isa2

ISA²
Programme

DIGIT-ISA2-
COMM@ec.europa.eu

Run by the Interoperability Unit at DIGIT (European Commission) with 131€M budget, the ISA² programme provides public administrations, businesses and citizens with specifications and standards, software and services to reduce administrative burdens.

ISA²